

Geoff Duncan
Church and Society Consultant
World Church Consultant

To: All Ministers and Church Secretaries

November 2009

Dear Friends

As a reminder - mailings are sent electronically to all ministers who are on the internet.

London Inter Faith Centre – please see attachment for the Companion Letter and notice of the National Inter Faith Week Service provided by Maggie Hindley.

Far Right Politics and the Church. Francis Ackroyd and I attended this important conference recently. Please see the report written by Francis. Arlington Trotman, Moderator of the Churches Commission for Migrants in Europe finished his lecture with six chilling words – The Third Reich Will Come Again. Those words will remain with me.

St Francis of Assisi Lecture 2009. Darwin and Disenchantment with Nature?

Wednesday 2 December 6.30pm - Methodist Central Hall SW1H 9NH - see attachment

World Aids Day – 1st December – HIV Our Reality The London Centre for Spirituality, The Church of St Edmund the King, Lombard Street EC3V 9EA will host an exhibition - the work of London Ecumenical Aids Trust from 10.30 – 5.30. There will be An Evening of Reflection for World AIDS Day from 6.30 – 7.15 followed by a reception until 8pm. www.lead.org.uk

Christmas 2009 – knowing that people, especially children, like to give gifts in kind I am pleased to publicise that St Mary Magdalene Centre for Refugees and Asylum Seekers, Holloway Road N7 8LT 020 7609 2616 www.stmarymagdalene.org will be delighted to receive gifts of toiletries, toothbrushes and toothpaste, new pens and stationery, socks, scarves. Gifts should be to the value of £5.00. Every client should receive a gift at Christmas. Small new gifts for children of the destitute families will be much appreciated.

Poverty and Homelessness Action Week
Saturday 30 January to Sunday 7 February 201
Theme: Enough for All

www.actionweek.org.uk

Church Secretaries will receive the flier in hard copy.

Kind Regards and Peace

Geoff Duncan