I think this picture is familiar to you.....a resource designed as a tool for us to use in our different contexts, which could help enrich the life of our church. I am following up an initiative suggested by our past Training Officer, Revd Fiona Thomas to discover whether churches or clusters of churches would like to explore some or all of the content of this 'Toolkit'. The issues raised in this resource can promote further learning and action on issues such as :

HOSPITALITY

MODELS of CHURCH

INTER -GENERATIONAL RELATIONS

MARKING THE SPECIAL TIMES IN OUR LIVES

LEADERSHIP STYLES

CROSS CULTURAL CHURCH LINKS

SHARING OUR BUILDINGS WITH OTHER CHURCHES

MISSION POSSIBILITIES

There are a few people with facilitating skills and experience including myself in our synod who are willing to come and run an interactive style workshop /session/s with a group in your church or with a group of churches, to explore any of the above subjects or related issues. If there is enough interest shown, I will set up the meetings with you and if this happens I would suggest they take place early 2010, such as February or March.

Please will you encourage your members to think about this and perhaps to see the relevance for your church. My hope would be that each church will look at these issues in their own cultural and theological contexts and that we will discover new pastoral and mission possibilities together.

Please come back to me by the middle of September , if possible please...thanks alot.
